Conference FAQ

Refunds for Services and Incidentals related to the Worship & Music Conference that are not Registration fees:

Requests for refunds of lodging, food, or other fees are subject to policies of the organizations with which these arrangements have been made.

Conference Check-In:

One choral music packet per registered participant will be distributed upon check-in.

During conference Check-In, all registered handbell players should visit the handbell clinicians to review each choir's repertoire and receive position assignment.

Handbell Packets must be purchased on-site at the Jeffers Handbell Supply Store on Sunday afternoon or Monday morning beginning at 7:30 am.

Chamber Choir packets will be available in Convocation Hall (Assembly Inn) beginning at 7:15 am on Monday.

Class Size Limits:

All classes are assigned size limits based on rooms and class content. The earlier you register, the more flexibility you will have in choosing classes and times.

Medical Insurance:

Neither PAM nor the Montreat Conference Center carries medical insurance on conferees.

Youth Talent Show (Tuesday Evening at 7:00 pm):

Participants must audition for the youth talent show. Auditions are held Sunday from 2:00 - 5:00 pm and following opening worship until 9:30 pm. Talent Show acts are limited to three minutes in length. No more than three acts from any one church may audition. Participants chosen for the Talent Show MUST attend the mandatory tech check rehearsal in Anderson Auditorium on Monday afternoon at 5:30 pm. Youth not chosen for the Talent Show may perform at Open Mic on Thursday evening. Each group or solo act must supply their own accompanist.

Continuing Education Events (C.E.U.s):

Continuing Education Units (C.E.U.s) may be arranged by obtaining a form from the PAM Conference Office (Allen Building, lower level). Check with your school system prior to the conference for any pre-approval requirements. A $10 processing fee is required to be paid when the completed form is turned in.
